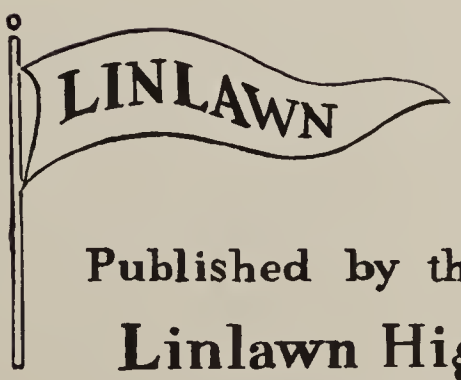
The 1951 Treasure Chest



Published by the Senior Class
Linlawn High School
Wabash, Indiana

Dedication

We, the Treasure Chest Staff of 1950-'51, dedicate this annual to the underclassmen with the hope that they will revere and cherish their years at Linlawn and recognize them for what they were -- one of the big stepping stones in their life.

Foreword

In the 1951 Treasure Chest we wish to give you a glimpse of our school and the activities which take part within it. We also feel it is a good opportunity to show you the improvements - New Laboratory, shop, and cafeteria - which have taken place within the past year.

Predictions Of

Hello, Mr. & Mrs. L. H. S. of 1960; Let's Go to Press!

Wabash, Ind. Mrs. Junior Eltzroth (formerly Mary Lou Allegree) is supporting her husband and 7 kids by mowing lawns. Junior stays home with the kids.

Knoxville, Tenn. General Johnathan Baer is leading the Bachelor Boys against the Married Men in the Dogpatch Mountains. The Bachelor Boys consist of the General and his 15 sons.

Chicago, Ill. Miss Patricia Baer is remodeling her cheerleading studio on Maxwell Street and will soon reopen. All students wanting reservations contact Joe Sausaman in Skid Row.

Nashville, Tenn. Miss Jean Crull, who graduated from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music with the highest honors, is now appearing on Grand 'Ol Opry with her musical saw.

Moscow, Russia. Norma Jean Cox has successfully defended her hog-calling championship against Joe Stalin. He was a tough man to beat, though.

Somerset, Ind. Deloris DeArmond (formerly Mrs. John Reed) has shoveled her way to fame. She was awarded the highest honor in a corn shoveling contest. She also does a mean square dance.

12th Army, Alaska. Buck Private Sam Deardurff has been court martialed and sentenced to 20 years hard labor. His offense--his sergeant caught him sleeping in his fox hole.

Puckerbrush, Ind. Robert Dyson, with his wife and 7 children, has moved from Richvalley to take a position as President of the No-Kneadum Dough Company.

Madison Square Garden. Word has just been received that Lela Eppley has sent for the book, "Wrestling for Women". She wants to be on television so her mother will let her stay up later.

Treaty, Ind. Miss Lois Eppley, Famous Lawyer of Flute Floogle Township, is trying to solve the case of "The Lost Chord". Where is the "Thing"?

Choketown, Ind. Louis "Louie" Goodwin has signed a contract to become head basketball coach of the Choketown Chokers. The way Louis keeps his players in shape is by giving them dancing lessons.

Wabash, Ind. Lillian Harnish is the new owner of "The Honey Comb Sweet Shop" located on the corner of Peppermint and Sweet Cider Avenue.

Churchhill Downs, Ky. It has been rumored that Otto Hamm has been asked to announce the Kentucky Derby over the radio. Also he recently married a fat lady of a circus 'cause he can cook.

New York, N.Y. Jim (Geyer, Roebuck) Hoy is after his second million working for Penney's. He had planned to retire but his sixteen children made this impossible.

Things To Come

Phoenix, Ariz. Melvin (Mogan) Richard Hobbs is the owner of the fabulous "Roll Dice Roll" Ranch. He has 18 children and 17 horses. He's way ahead of the field.

San Francisco. William Huddleston has made a small fortune out of his last invention. It is a mouse-trap which catches both mice and men. The women are crazy about it.

Miami Beach, Fla. Joann Keel has moved again for the 15th consecutive time. That is what happens when you marry an Air Force man.

Fort Knox, Kentucky. Lawrence Kirby is showing the experienced sharp-shooters in the Army how to get a better score. He's only a private, just a beginner.

Lower Slobbovia. Dan Paul, the Dogpatch Troubadour, has retired from professional life and is running a schmoo farm. Dan, who, was recently elected president of Straight Pipes Anonymous, is also an agent for Ernie Tubbs Records and Jim Roebuck Funny Books.

Priestown, Ind. Don (Wheel) Pries is now coaching his famous team, the Pries Quintuplets. They are undefeated as yet. One reason is because his wife is the referee and no one will play them.

Richvalley, Ind. Barbara (Maggie) Ray, who was recently chosen as Miss Grunt and Groan of 1960, will soon defend her title against Hattie, the man-handling hair dresser in the Richvalley Amphitheater. Good Luck!!!

New York, N. Y. Wayne (Romeo) Sparling has returned from Europe. His starring roles in romantic dramas have thrilled the women of Europe as well as those in America. Wayne attributes his success to his courting days back at Linlawn Hi.

U. S. S., Indiana. Seaman first class James Speicher is one of the best sailors in the Navy. He spends his spare time watching the WAVES. I'll bet that he doesn't get seasick.

Wabash, Indiana. Alma Stoops won the State gum crackers contest by chewing her own special brand of gum. She calls it the Gum Cracker Suite. She also works for General Tire in her spare time. She blows up the tires.

Indianapolis, Ind. Betty Tait, the million dollar heir, was recently awarded the Tuff-Luck prize for being the oldest old maid in Indiana.

Miami, Florida. Lois (Two-Ton) Tyner has just completed her fifth season with the Ringlish Brothers' Circus. As a result of the death of Lady Matilda, Lois now holds the title of the World's Heaviest Woman.

New York, N. Y. Charlene Votaw has signed a contract playing the piano for the Metropolitan Soap Opera House and she sells lots of soap. One cake of soap sells for (1) niccum (oops, I guess that's one nickel).

So you can see, the class is prosperous and here's wishing the best of luck to you all. This is Station WLHS-WLHS-FM signing off and leaving you with this thought--the drips of today are tomorrow's big splashes.

Last Will

We the class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-one, of sound mind and body do declare this our last will and testament, revoking all former wills made at any time.

We will and bequeath our qualities, abilities and private property as follows: Mary Lou Allegree to Ann Rish my front seat in assembly and with it my uncanny ability to keep my eyes on the teacher and also watch the hecklers who sit behind me; John Baer to Joseph Votaw my ability to sit alone with the girls in Room 4 the 5th period and make believe I'm working on the annual; Patty Baer to Becky Weesner my painted senior cord skirt and weskit so that she too may be noticed wherever she goes, also my position as majorette; Norma Jean Cox to Carolyn Clark my flashing blue eyes in hopes that she may catch a good looking man. She may also have my glasses so she can worry about breaking them; Jean Crull to Ilean Eltzroth my squeaky shoes so that she may not pass thru the assembly unnoticed; Deloris DeArmond to Katherine Bannister my glasses to hide behind while flirting and my seat at the end of the row in Civics. It's wonderful for sleeping, whispering, chewing gum, or reading library books; Sam Deardurff to Leo DeArmond a box of No-Doze tablets so he won't go to sleep as often as I do; Bob Dyson to Dick Binkerd my ability to stay home at night and also sleep in Mrs. Myers' study hall; Lela Eppley to Judy Hoy my seat in assembly so she may sit there and get as smart (?) as I am; Lois Eppley to Shirley Ridenour my position as librarian so she can watch certain people who are in assembly the 5th period; Louis Goodwin to Lawrence Marks my knowledge that I have gained in Civics class and my ability to speak what I learned in speech class so that he may become a senator; Lillian Harnish to Gerry Stineman my ability to find excuses to get out of assembly periods and my seat in speech class where I am surrounded by boys (It's wonderful!); Otto Hamm to Duane Truss my ability to make love with another boy's girl friend in the Senior Play; Dick Hobbs to Bill Bennett my favorite song, Cigarettes and Whiskey and Wild, Wild Women, also my uncanny skill in pool and snooker; Jim Hoy to Neil Kerschner my study hall seat so he can sleep thru Mrs. Myers' study hall and not get caught; Bill Huddleston to Joseph Ridenour my ability to get along without girls and my seat in back of the assembly; Joann Keel to Becky Schuster my ability to feed Mr. McClurg the left-overs from Home Ec. to keep him nice and plump; Lawrence Kirby to Doyle Ross my front seat in assembly. It's real close to the waste basket so he can practice on his basketball shots; Dan Paul to Dick Working my number one locker and my pet mouse, Ernie. Also a year's supply of cigars and my rum deck so he can have something to do at noon; Don Pries to Bob Kiefaber my romantic impulses with the hope that he doesn't get stuck like I did; Barbara Ray to Virginia Dyehouse my ability to flirt with Don Pries and Wayne Sparling in Civics class; Wayne Sparling to Don Stouffer my right arm so he can pitch as good (?) as I do; Jim Speicher to Larry Anderson my ability to sleep in study hall with one eye on the teachers and the other one on the women, also my 45 words a minute in typing--Imagine 45 CWPM with only two fingers; Alma Stoops to Raymond Bland my ability to chew gum in Mrs. Haupert's class without getting caught; Betty Tait to George Roser my driving ability to speed up when coming to a traffic light and getting through on a yellow light; Lois Tyner to the Junior Class our ability to spend our hard earned money wisely, also our ability to get along with all the teachers on all things; Charlene Votaw to the Junior Class our ability to be Seniors and take an active part in senior activities. Also our privilege of being exempt from final exams. We, The Senior Class of 1950-'51 do will and bequeath to the Senior Class of 1951-'52 a year of hard work that is mingled with rememberances and thoughts that make the last year the best and most enjoyable. Good luck to you all.

Class History

In the year 1939, a new class of first graders took their places in the room of Miss Crystal Halleck. Patty Baer, Lela and Lois Eppley, Betty Tait, Lillian Harnish, Lawrence Kirby, Bill Huddleston, Jimmy Speicher, and Robert Dyson made up this group. Later in the same year Mary Lou Allegree from Shoals, Indiana, joined our group.

During the next five years we gained more students who were to be our graduating class of 1951. These students were: Alma Stoops from Wabash in the 4th grade; Joann Keel from Somerset in the 5th grade; Danny Paul from Terre Haute; Lois Tyner from Lagro; Jim Hoy from Wabash; and Charlene Votaw from Muskegon, Michigan, in the 6th grade. During these years our teachers were the Misses Stoops, Odum, Williams, Wiles, and Mr. Tinkle.

Then we finally reached the half-way mark and moved to the High School. In the middle of the 7th grade Dick Hobbs moved in from Chester and in the 8th grade Barbara Ray joined us. Mrs. Barnett was our home room teacher in the 7th grade and Mr. Williams in the 8th grade.

For the next year we were known as the "Green Freshmen" but we really didn't mind. This was probably the hardest year in school but we all passed including our new additions: Jean Crull from Wabash; Louie Goodwin from Richmond, Indiana; and Otto Hamm from Crawfordsville, Indiana. Our officers that year were: Pres.-Lois Tyner; Vice-Pres.-Dick Hobbs; Sec.-Treas.-Charlene Votaw.

John Baer from Pleasant Hill, Tennessee, and Deloris DeArmond from Wabash joined us as Sophomores. As the class officers we chose Lela Eppley-Pres., Danny Paul-Vice-Pres., Charlene Votaw-Sec.-Treas., and Dick Hobbs-Student Council Rep. We enjoyed a "Splash" party at Bunker Hill that year. Later in the year, we had a weiner roast.

As we entered our Junior year in Linlawn we welcomed two more students; Don Pries from Chester and Norma Jean Cox from Lincolnville. After mid-term Wayne Sparling from Lagro joined us. We elected Lois Tyner-Pres., Patty Baer-Vice-Pres., Charlene Votaw-Sec.-Treas., and Jim Speicher as Student Council Rep. As Juniors we sold concessions; had a fish fry; gave the annual Junior Play, "Mother Is a Freshman"; entertained the Seniors at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, and sold magazine subscriptions. We also won the class tourney that year.

THE BIG YEAR -- Sam Deardurff from Morocco, Indiana, completed our graduating class of 27. With Mr. Shanahan and Mrs. Haupert as sponsors we worked hard to get ready for graduation but with all of the work I believe almost all of us would tell you it has been our most wonderful year. John Baer as class president probably had the greatest amount of work but he was well assisted by Norma Jean Cox, Vice-Pres., and Lois Eppley, Sec.-Treas. Our Sr. play "For Pete's Sake" was a howling success and our Trip and Jr.-Sr. Banquet were most enjoyable.

On May 6 our Baccalaureate was held and on May 11 we received our diplomas.

Junior-Senior Reception

The Juniors entertained at the annual Jr.-Sr. Reception held in the Hotel LaFontaine at Huntington on April 29, 1950.

The theme, "At the End of the Rainbow", was carried out with large rainbows and pots of gold decorating the tables.

The invocation was given by Ira McClurg. Jim Speicher acted as toastmaster of the evening.

The program was opened with the welcome extended to the guests by Lois Tyner and the response to the welcome from John Dale.

The entertainment which followed was furnished by the Four Little Shavers who sang several selections and Lester Kassing who put on a show of magic.

After this the wishes of the teachers to the Seniors were read and the benediction was given by John Peters.

Junior Play

"For Pete's Sake"

The cast consisted of:

Miss Sarah Pepperdine (Lela Eppley) - a wealthy middle-aged woman with a social standing and a dominating spirit.

Jasmine Jackson (Lois Eppley) - the superstitious colored cook.

Dean Murglethorpe (Louis Goodwin) - timid Dean of Elwood College.

Peter Pepperdine (Otto Hamm) - young, handsome nephew of Miss Pepperdine who is always in hot water because of the lies he tells.

Bill Bradshaw (Jim Hoy) - Peter's side kick.

Thorndyke "Muggsy" Murglethorpe (Johnny Baer) - intellectual looking college grind and nephew of Dean Murglethorpe.

Mrs. Georgiana Clarkston (Lois Tyner) - social climber complete with gushing manner and southern accent.

Nadine Clarkston (Charlene Votaw) - sweet-tempered daughter of Mrs. Clarkston. Peter's sweetheart.

Peggy Clarkston (Patty Baer) - A pretty, vivacious blonde who is considered quite a flirt. Bill's girl.

Malvina Potts (Alma Stoops) - Muggsy's counterpart.

John Boliver (Dick Hobbs) - Wealthy banker who competes with Peter to get Nadine.

Dupont Darby (Danny Paul) - College poet who gives Bill competition.

"For Pete's Sake" was under the directorship of Mr. McClurg and Mrs. Haupert. Properties were secured by Robert Dyson, Bill Huddleston, and Lawrence Kirby. The stage was arranged by Jim Speicher and Wayne Sparling. The ushers consisted of: Barbara Ray, Deloris DeArmond, Norma Jean Cox, Jean Crull, Mary Lou Allegree, and Joann Keel. Ticket sales were handled by Don Pries, Lawrence Kirby and Betty Tait. Those on the program committee were: Lela Eppley, Patty Baer, and John Baer. Prompters for the play were Lillian Harnish and Betty Tait. Sam Deardurff was in charge of the curtains.

"Our Miss Brooks"

The Junior Class presented "Our Miss Brooks," on Thursday, March 29. This play, directed by Ira McClurg, depicted the conflict in a modern high school between the English teacher, Miss Brooks, and the Basketball coach, Hugo Longacre, over the use of the gymnasium.

The Cast was:

Miss Brooks, always in hot water with the principal and the school board, Virginia Dyehouse; Hugo Longacre, the coach, Lawrence Marks; Mr. Wadsworth, the principal, George Roser; Ted Wilder, whose dramatic and athletic abilities cause conflicts, portrayed by Robert Kiefaber; Miss Finch, the librarian, Judy Hoy; Miss Audubon, the music teacher, Carolyn Clark; Mrs. Allen, head of the school board and a thorn in the life of Miss Brooks, Rebecca Schuster; Rhonda Allen, impressed by the fact that her mother is president of the school board, Becky Weesner; Jane who competes with Rhonda in several ways, Ann Rish; and other high school students--Elsie, Ilean Eltzroth; Elaine, Shirley Ridenour; Sy, Joe Votaw; Dugg, Neil Kershner; Mark, Bill Bennett; Fred, Dick Binkerd; Stanley, Duane Truss; Martin, Don Stouffer.

Stage managers were Raymond Bland and Leo DeArmond. Becky Weesner was in charge of the ticket sales and Mrs. Phyllis Myers was responsible for costumes, make up, and advertising. She was assisted in advertising by Geraldine Stineman, Joe Ridenour, Katherine Bannister, Doyle Ross, and Dick Working.

Carnival

Carnival time found all the high school setting up their booths and making posters for their king and queen candidates.

Freshmen candidates were Norma Siders and Tom Dunfey while Carolyn Clark and Larry Anderson represented the Sophomores. The Juniors chose Lois Tyner and Don Pries and the Senior candidates were Miriam Eppley and John Thompson. The crowning of Miriam and John as king and queen was the climax of the evening.

Everyone was certainly kept busy throughout the evening. The Junior girls were rushing here and there in the lunchroom making sure everyone had enough to eat. The cake walk, weight guessing, and ring the duck were in the gym.

Other entertaining features of the evening were a fish pond, kissing booth, movies, and the Daisy Dodgers. Late in the evening there was a drawing for the deep freeze and the carnival drew to a close. People carried home with them the pleasant memories of a successful carnival.

Patron's Day

Thursday, March 22, was the day selected for the annual Patron's Day. Everyone, especially the students, seemed satisfied judging from the smiles on their faces.

After the dinner the annual election of officers was held. Afterwards everyone met in the gymnasium for the program.

The juniors presented several skits from their play, "Our Miss Brooks." Several numbers were presented by the High School Swing Band. The time passed quickly and it wasn't long until another Big Dinner was marked off the calendar.

Annual Staff

Standing: Lillian Harnish, Mary Lou Allegree, John Baer -chief editor, Jim Hoy, Bill Bennett,Charlene Votaw-business manager.

The Annual Staff is happy to present this annual to you the reader because it means the termination of their duties and all of the horrible work. But all of us will agree that we wouldn't have missed it for the world. It has been fun and we hope you will enjoy reading the annual as much as we enjoyed publishing it.

We are grateful to Bill Bennett and Ann Rish for the work that they contributed.

Band

The newest part of the band this year was our new director, Mr. Reed, who proved very capable in directing. We played at all the ballgames this year and tried to entertain the crowd by marching. One of the biggest days for the band was the Christmas parade at Wabash. It was quite an experience for all of us.

Solo contest was held February 17 with Barbara Stouffer, Ruth Kirby, Joe Ridenour, Richard Bracken, Bertie Lee Hansing, Joann Hansing, Lowell Gilley, and Jeanette Gordon entering as soloists. Lela and Lois Eppley, Barbara Stouffer, and Joe Ridenour, clarinet quartet, Doyle Ross, Max Denney, Eddie Landis, Ruth Kirby and Joann Hansing, brass quintet entered as ensembles. Band contest was held March 31, and the county band festival was held March 11 at Honeywell's.

Something new to our band was the election of an assistant band director, Charlene Votaw, and business manager, Lela Eppley. The band playing at the Christmas program was the first public performance under Charlene's direction. We shall always remember the experiences we had during this year in band.

Booster Club

As a whole the members of the Booster Club faithfully attended the games backing the boys all the way. The school spirit was exceptionally fine at the county and sectional tourneys. The officers who made the club a success by providing for transportation to the away games were Barbara Ray, President, and Lois Eppley, Vice-President.

The Linlawn girls 4-H club was organized in September, 1950, with officers being Lois Eppley-President; Judy Hoy-Vice-President, Charlene Votaw-Secretary; Lela Eppley-Treasurer; and Barbara Stouffer-Recreation Leader. This club is led by Mrs. Roy Mowrer. The Richvalley Club is led by Patty Baer with Mary Lou Thompson-President; Phyllis Baer-Vice-President; Anita Coldren-Secretary-treasurer; and Rebecca Thompson-Reporter.

H

The boys club is under the direction of Mr. Dale Sutherlin with Wayne Sparling-President; Barnett Wolfrum-Vice-President; Dean Eppley-Secretary-treasurer; and Deloris Miller-Reporter.

The Future Farmers of America elected Don Stouffer as their President, Bob Kiefaber - Vice-President, Dick Hobbs - Treasurer, and George Roser - Reporter. Dale Sutherlin acted in the capacity of adult advisor and leader.

Student Council

Under the leadership of Joe Votaw, President, the Student Council has had a prosperous year. Other officers assisting Joe were Norma Jean Cox, Vice-Pres., and Carol Davenport, Sec.-Treas. The faculty advisor was Mrs. Haupert.

The Student Council has been responsible for seven assembly programs, alternating with six class programs. Some of the interesting programs of the year were: Jane Baldwin, exchange teacher from Hawaii; the Christmas program which included a play from the speech class, Christmas music by the band and the madrigal group, and a chalk talk by Rev. Brown.

Projects for the year included: Food donations to Associated Charities at Christmas, adoption of a Constitution to govern future activities of the Student Council and the school, and a co-sponsor for a donkey ballgame.

We hope the students approve what has been done this year and they will continue to support the Student Council as well as they have this year.

Speech

At North Manchester on November 18, Charlene Votaw and Jim Hoy entered extemporaneous speaking and Deloris DeArmond poetry interpretation.

The following attended the Student Legislature at Purdue on December 1st and 2nd: Deloris DeArmond - Senator, Lawrence Marks - Alternate, Joe Votaw - Representative, Lois Tyner - Alternate and extemporaneous speaker, Charlene Votaw - speaker, Ann Rish and Becky Weesner - spectators, and Mrs. Haupert, speech director.

Office Help

The office helpers this year consisted of seven girls whose duties were to type letters, answer the telephone, and the other little duties necessary to the functioning of a school. Each girl had to give up a study period to take the position but it has given experience in office work.

Coach

Mr. Enyeart worked under the handicap of having no previous experience at coaching. He brought the team through some exciting upsets during the year. He proved what spunk and determination can contribute to the winning of a game.

George Roser has again faithfully contributed his time and efforts for the third year as Student Manager to the basketball team. He was always in there helping with the little jobs which mean so much to the success of a team.

Cheerleaders

The cheering section was capably led by our Cheer Leaders, Patty Baer, John Baer, and Becky Weesner. They sometimes had small cheering sections to work with but they were always willing to give the boys a cheer. Even when the score was doubled against us, they didn't give up yelling. They were in there cheering until the final gun.

Basketball

Louis Goodwin - Louie is one of our big boys who plays the forward position and has been on the varsity for two years. He is 6' 1", weighs 167 pounds, and is a Senior. Louie was always in there fighting and will be missed by his teammates who will be back next year.

Dick Hobbs - This was Dick's first year with the varsity playing the position of guard. Dick is 5' 7", weighs 156 pounds, and is a Senior. We could always count on Dick when the going was tough.

Dan Paul - Dan is another Senior and has played on the varsity for the past three years. Dan is 5' 10", weighs 140 pounds, and plays the forward position. Dan was another spark plug who was always in there with the winning spirit.

The remaining boys of this year's varsity are:

Larry Anderson	6' 0"	140 lbs.	Center	1 yr.
Raymond Bland	5'10"	132 lbs.	Forward	1 yr.
Robert Kiefaber	5'10"	145 lbs.	Guard	2 yrs.
Lawrence Marks	6' 2"	160 lbs.	Center	1 yr.
Doyle Ross	6' 0"	124 lbs.	Forward	1 yr.
Joe Votaw	5' 7"	137 lbs.	Guard	2 yrs.
Glen Brown	5' 9"	145 lbs.	Guard	1 yr.

To these three Senior boys, we the fellows that will be back next year say: "It has really been swell playing with you and we hope that we can carry on the fine tradition that you have left at Linlawn High.

Second Team

The second team this year wasn't too successful winning four games out of seventeen. Although they came very close to winning more of them they just couldn't quite make it. They show promise that in the future with practice and determination they will make a team hard to beat.

Boy's Intramural Volleyball Champs

The Junior High basketball team was divided into two teams this year. The members of the eighth grade composed the first and those of the seventh grade made up the second. The first team won 3 out of 12 games. Although this does not show too high a percentage, we are sure with all that experience they will give our school an even bigger name in the near future.
